DEDICATION

This Gala Thanksgiving Issue is dedicated to the proposed Third College of UCSD, the Lumumba-Zapata College, and to the individuals for which it is named, "Patsy" Lumumba and Emma Zapata. "Patsy" Lumumba, it may be remembered, was a well-known "freedom fighter" in the Kingdom of the Congo who managed to lose three successive battles to the forces of King Leopold II of Belgium in 1885. His losses decimated Congolese forces and insured Leopold's possession of his Congo colony. "Patsy" was then allowed to retire in Brussels on a fat pension which, it turns out, had been promised him by Leopold for losing the battles in the first place. He is today remembered and honored throughout Africa as truly representative of the character of African neutralism. Emma Zapata is the only woman in the history of Mexico known to be related to Moctezuma II, Ponce DeLeon, Iturbide, and SantaAna. She is also the only woman to have been proclaimed President, having held this exalted station no less than 57 times. Unfortunately, she never reached Mexico City on any of these occasions, and was thus denied her traditional right to raid the national treasury. Emma's early employment as a prostitute in Oaxaca was good experience for her political career. On different occasions, beginning with her first presidency in early 1909, she sold out to the French, the Germans, the Americans, the British, the Guatamalans, the Ethiopians, and once even to the Liberians. She is the only known Mexican leader to conclude alliances with Nspal, San Marino, and the Indian Stream Republic. As the noted historian, William Applesauce Williams, has once noted, "The depths to which Emma Zapata's imagination could sink were matched only by the heights to which her greed and avarice could raise her demands upon the wretched and misanthropic Indians of the Sierra Maximilliano." (see A Marxist-Leninist-Revisionist-Beardlike-Mercantilist History of Mexico and the Evil Nasty American Imperialiste, p. 5129) Indicative of the political confusion which existed among the Huntanpec Indians, by the way, is the fact that their main city was Ciudad Diaz, which was located on the Rio Juarez and the Rio Augustin I.

We are proud to know that the name of the Third College will commemorate "Patsy" Lumumba and Emma Zapata, who espoused and embodied the principles espoused and embodied by those whose demonstrations last year touched off the whole thing.

But enough of this. On to the blood and gore!

NEWS OF THE WORLD

The big news is that I'm tired of writing all this stuff myself. Contributions from you-all are expected.

ROME (29 September 1902): His Holiness, Pope Innocent XIV, fresh from the front where he exhorted Italian troops with His new bull, "Fight On Bravely, O Italia", told reporters today that His plans to flee Rome are coming along nicely. "The only problem," His Holiness observed, "is that of passenger space in our specially chartered train. Several people want to come with us." A reporter from the Birmingham Gibble-scratch asked, "Are there very many?" Replied the Pope, "About thirteen million..."

ROME (3 October 1902) (New Entropy Press): Her Highness, Princess Lucrezia Borgia, daughter of the Pope, today issued invitations to her Birthday Party, Annual Fete and Grand Blow-Out and Orgy, to be held at St Peter's on the night of her birthday, the 31st of October. Invitations are being sent to many of the world's notables. This is predicted to be the most glittering affair of the year.

ROME (1 November 1902) (N.E.P.): Princess Lucrezia's birthday party, held last night in St Peter's Cathedral and several nearby monasteries and graveyards, is already the talk of Europe. The guest list itself has almost become legendary. Among those attending were Dr. Fu Manchu of China; Count Dracula of Transylvania; Dr. Frankenstein of Germany; a quiet little chap named Igor; Dr. Moriarty of England; Col. Moran of England; the Marquis de Sade; a Mr. Scratch from America, and a compatriot of his; a Miss Elizabeth Borden; King Guillermo of Italy; the Sultan of Turkey; King Michael of England; a Russian monk named Rasputin; His Holiness the Pope and His personal corps of Feather Dancers from the Abbey of St. Salome the Undulating; King Pandemonium V of Poderkagg; Duke Nosebeard VIII of Hernia; Theodore Roosevelt; John D. Rockefeller; and Ruggedo, King of the Womes. Also in attendance was a tall chap in a long black robe, who seemed to have a finger missing from his left hand and kept asking everybody if they had seen his ring, possibly in a chunk of lava. "It was," commented Her Highness, "a most congenial group." The princess received many valuable gifts from her guests, including a large number of humidors full of henbane, nightshade, curari, and other spices.

* * * * *

We come now to a new department of this 'zine, called

THE SAYINGS OF SPIRO AGNEW

Wherein are chronicled the famous witticisms, bon mots, and other bloopers of our Vice President, who approacheth every problem with an open mouth and a closed mind. We have two this time:

East Camel dung, Arizona, 31 April 1968: "Sex is a four letter word!"

Coppiece, Massachusetts, 32 October 1968: "My country, drunk or sober." Your contributions are solicited. They will be judged on the basis of appropriateness, originality, and standards set by our Veep, the greatest exponent of pedantology the world has ever known. Tune in, next issue, for more gems of wisdom from The Bore That Talks Like a Man.

Thanksgiving is the day upon which the American Indian gives thanks that the Native American, along with everything else, was not a cannibal, too.
